BARBADOES.

ON the 13th of July 1713, Mr. Hart, Commander of the Ship Lancaster, arrived here late at Night from London, and on the 14th in the Morning delivered his Excellency a Packet from the Government, upon which his Excellency immediately caused the Queen's Royal Proclamation for the Observance of the Peace between her Majesty and the French King to be solemnly Published in the four chief Towns of the Island.

His Excellency also issued a Proclamation for appointing the 1st Day of August, to be solemnly kept as a Day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the said Peace; and did thereby also revoke all Letters of Marque which he had granted.

On the 1st Day of August the Council and General-Assembly waited on his Excellency at the Council-House, and unanimously agreed upon a very Loyal Address to her Majesty; after which they, together with the Judges, Field-Officers, several Gentlemen and eminent Merchants, attended upon his Excellency from the Council-House to St. Michael's Church, which was filled with Ladies and Gentlemen of the best Quality and Figure in the Island; when the Anthem began the great Artillery at Needham's Fort were Discharged, and the Reverend and Learned Mr. Whorton Preached before his Excellency, and made a proper and eloquent Discourse upon the Occasion.

After Divine Service was over, her Majesty's Council, General-Assembly, Judges, Field-Officers, and several of the best Gentlemen and eminent Merchants, attended his Excellency from Church to his own House, where he gave them a most splendid Entertainment, and drank the following Healths, viz. Prosperity, long Life, and good Health to the Queen; Prosperity to the House of Hanover, to the Church of England, to the Ministry, to the Lord Treasurer, to Barbadoes, and to the long continuance of the Peace. Upon drinking the Queen's Health all the great Ordnance in the Island were Discharged, and upon each of the other Healths the Field-Train of Artillery and all the great Ordnance in St. Michael's Division.

In the Evening, his Excellency's House was Illuminated, and near 12 at Night the Company departed full of Joy and Satisfaction.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 12.

Stuttgart, Oct. 5. We have received Advice from the Camp near Rothweil that the Enemy having sent out a Detachment, to put the County of Hanau-Stein and the Country about it under Contribution, 1500 Horse were commanded out on our Side to oblige them to retire, but the Success was not yet known. Our Troops have possessed themselves anew of the Posts of Homberg, Schiltach, St. Pierre, and St. George: The Enemy have since attempted to dislodge us from them, but in vain. Our Troops are employed in making Falcines. The French continue to fortify their Camp before Fribourg. They opened the Trenches before that Place the Night between the 30th past and the 1st Instant, and have already received part of their Artillery. 'Tis rumoured, that the Gar-risen of Fribourg has made a Sally, in which the Royal Regiment of the Besiegers was ruined.

From the Imperial Camp at Muhlberg, Oct. 6. Prince Eugene of Savoy sets out from hence to Morrow, to go Post to General Vaubonne's Camp near Rothweil, and give necessary Orders in those Parts.

Dunkirk, Oct. 3. The Demolishing of the Outworks is carried on with all Application. The 1st Instant came hither two Battalions more of French, who are now at Work. They are taking down all the Lead and Slate from off the Houses in the Ricebank, and have broken down great Part of the three wooden Ports: And this Afternoon about 200 Galley-Slaves were sent to Fort-Blanc, and took out most of the Guns from thence. They talk of blowing it up next Week. The Miners are also at Work at the Ricebank, in order to blow that up likewise. There is a Rumour in Town, that 6000 Peasants are to be summoned hither to work, which would do something, for the French Soldiers are so weak they will not be able to hold out at working, and there are abundance of Works about this Town.

Oxford, October 2.

This Day being appointed for the Admission of a new Vice-Chancellor of the University, the Reverend Dr. Gardiner, Warden of All-Souls College, was by the Chancellor's Letter continued in the Office for the Year ensuing: And whereas an Infamous Libel, entitled, The Speech that was intended to have been spoken by the Vice-Chancellor in the Theatre at Oxford July the 13th 1713, &c. written by an Author as yet unknown, had been lately spread in the University; the Vice-Chancellor after his Admission proposed to the House of Convocation, that they would Decree the said Libel to be burnt, which was readily agreed to in a very full Assembly of Doctors and Masters, who upon this Occasion shewed a general Abhorrence of that Scandalous Libel; accordingly it was immediately burnt before the whole University, in the Area near the Theatre, by the Marshal of the Beggars.

London, October 7.

M. Winquitz, a Swedish Gentleman, who was sent hither 6 Months ago on the Part of the Prince della Rocca of the Kingdom of Naples, to solicit that Prince's Enlargement from the Bastille where he has been confined 12 Years, has at length received Advice that his most Christian Majesty has permitted that Prince, with the Consent of the Court of Madrid, and out of Regard to the Queen of Great-Britain, to go out of the Bastille, and to reside at Orleans on his Parole, till Peace be made between the Empire and France.

Consumptions of all sorts radically Cured, by a famous Elixir peculiarly invented for that Disease; its wonderful efficacy sufficiently explodes the Erroneous Opinion, that Consumptions are incurable, since it absolutely retrieves the Patient, though reduced to a mere Skeleton; quickly takes off all the Symptoms, as Cough, Hæmopsis, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Pain or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, forebodings of the Stomach, Throat or Wind-pipe; also Catarrhs or Disfluxions of sharp Rheum, and all Pituital and Asthmatic Affects, Heftick Fever, &c. perfectly cures all internal Ulcers, restores all inward Weakness, Weakness and decay of Nature, being Balsamic and Strengthening beyond Comparison; it speedily eradicates the first Principle, or cause of Consumptions, redressing the Disorders of Stomach and first Passages, creating an Appetite, procuring a good Digestion, reducing the vicious ferment of the Blood and Juices, correcting the Acid Salts that erode the Lungs, curbing boiling Ulcers, Scurvy, and infallibly curing all sorts of Consumptions, that never fail in a very short time to a Miracle. Price 3s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions. Sold only at Mr. Osborn's, Topham at the Rose and Crown

The Delightful Chymical Liqueur, for the Breath; Teeth, and Gums, Which in a Moment makes the most offensive Breath Small delicately Fine and charming, and in very little time infallibly Cures, so that an offensive Breath will not return; it certainly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth perfectly White, clean and beautiful to a Miracle; Cures the Scurvy in the Gums, tho' never so inveterate, making the Flesh grow again, when almost Eaten away, and infalibly restores loose Teeth to Admiration, even in Old People, who too often falsely think their Age to be the Occasion. In short, for delightfully Perfuming, and quickly Curing an ill-Kept Breath, for preserving the blackest Teeth most excellently White, certainly forming them into Loofs, effectually preserving them from Rotting or Decaying, and speedily Curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its Equal in the Universe, as Abundance of the Nobility and Gentry testify about the King, and have Experienced. It Sold at Mr. Poy's, a Tap-Room at the Angel and Crown, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, New Covered, at 2s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions.
